-----
B.A. 6222/2006
-----

Dated this 21st day of November, 2006

O R D E R

It is submitted by the learned counsel on either side that the parties are now living happily in a rented house taken by Jaffer, the first petitioner. The defacto complainant, Sherina, is pregnant. The minor female child, Fathima, is also with the couple. Under condition No.6 of the order dated 6.11.2006, on completion of all the conditions contained therein, the parties were directed to withdraw all the complaints registered against each other and the proceedings will, accordingly, be dropped at the instance of the respective parties, who made the complaint, or the same be legally closed.

2. The learned counsel for the first petitioner, Jaffer, submits that the police is even now, though the parties are living together, visiting the house, as there is no further instructions from this Court.

3. In the above circumstances, the learned Public Prosecutor shall direct the police to take appropriate action and close the complaints, that had been filed by either of the parties.

The application is disposed of as above.
